WINEMAKER'S NOTES

Yo, Mr. Gaucho man! Break out your boleadoras and let's go snag some grapes and beef and call it a fiesta. In Argentina, Malbec reigns supreme. Well, we're here to show you the Argentineans have nothing on Washington Malbec. Think of a spoonful of dark berry jam, a pinch of white pepper, all topped off with a sprinkle of loamy Dusted Valley earth. Invite your friends over and do the Argentinean Pasaado. Grill it all on swords; chorizo, chavito, Bessie the cow, suckling pig and whatever other animal you can get your hands on.
