

MALBEC 2011 COLUMBIA VALLEY

BLEND

91% Malbec, 5% Cabernet Sauvignon,
4% Cabernet Franc

APPELLATION

Columbia Valley

VINEYARDS

Birch Creek (Estate), Stone Tree,
Weinbau, Bacchus

WINE ANALYSIS

6.38 grams/L Total Acidity
3.77 pH
14.7% Alcohol

TECHNIQUES

12-16 day maceration

OAK PROGRAM

45% new oak

PRODUCTION

3,168 bottles

RETAIL PRICE

$42

UPC

856589001071

CURRENT & PAST SCORES

2010 - 92 Points & Editors Choice,
Wine Enthusiast
2009 - Outstanding, Wine Press NW
2008 - Double Gold, Seattle Wine Awards
2007 - 91 Points, Wine Advocate

WINEMAKER'S NOTES Yo, Mr. Gaucho man! Break out your boleadoras and let's go snag some grapes and beef and call it a fiesta. In Argentina, Malbec reigns supreme. Well, we're here to show you the Argentineans have nothing on Washington Malbec. Think of a spoonful of dark berry jam, a pinch of white pepper, all topped off with a sprinkle of loamy Dusted Valley earth. Invite your friends over and do the Argentinean Pasasdo. Grill it all on swords; chorizo, chavito, Bessie the cow, suckling pig and whatever other animal you can get your hands on.

Wine & Spirits
MAGAZINE
2013
WINERY
OF THE YEAR